

KEVIN KIRK - SENIOR DIRECTOR OF INSTRUCTION

Kevin joined the Performance Center team in The Woodlands bringing with him over 15 years of experience working with both skilled golfers as well as beginners. Among many of his accolades, Kevin was named one of Texas' top ten Teaching Professionals in 2007. For the majority of his career, Kevin has been instrumental in advancing golf instruction by incorporating numerous other components into his students' games. A few of Kevin's instructional components include: biomechanics, conditioning and fitness, orthopedics, nutrition, vision and balance.

SIMON WEBB - SENIOR DIRECTOR OF INSTRUCTION

Simon joins the Player Development team after spending the past eight years as the head strength and conditioning coach at the world renowned Victorian Institute of Sport (VIS) Golf program. Graduates of the program include Geoff Ogilvy, Stuart Appleby, Robert Allenby and Aaron Baddeley. In addition to being the fitness trainer for several professional players who have won various tours around the world, including US Open Champion, Michael Campbell, Simon has extensive experience training in soccer, tennis, swimming, and baseball.

MATT STANO – MAGNOLIA CREEK

- Focuses on ball flight principals, cause and effect and an individual approach for each student
- Effective with players of all skill levels including Division 1 collegiate athletes
- Has coached multiple HGA winners
- Specialty: Creating an individualized program for each golfer based on his or her personal skill level and goals

ROGER STEBBINS – LAKE WINDCREST

- Played collegiate golf at Southwest Texas State University
- B.S. Exercise Sports Science Kinesiology
- Played professionally on the Adams Tight Lies Tour from 2003-2004
- Specialty: Junior golfers and Player Development programs for all skill levels